

Random Acts of Kindness

This week the children will be told the story of the Good Samaritan and they will be given a task for the week – to try Random Acts of Kindness. I am hoping these expressions of love will help the children to appreciate helping others, whether they like them or not. It struck me that you might want to try these too, you may be surprised by what happens! Rev Kim

Random Acts of Kindness

Compliment someone

Recycle batteries

Smile at someone

Share toys with brother or sister or friend

Make a card for someone

Use your pocket money to help someone

Help at home with a job – washing up, empty the bins etc.

Help a grandparent

Let someone go ahead of you in a line.

Tell your parents what you appreciate about them.

Give food for the church pantry.

Write a letter to someone in the Defence Force.

Encourage someone.

Take a dessert to a neighbour.

Make a birdfeeder.

Collect soft plastics and take them to

Woolies or Coles for recycling.

Talk to someone on their own at lunch time.

Put change in a vending machine.

Give a plant to a neighbour.

Pick up litter