

WHAT'S NEXT

If you have decided you want to hold your funeral at one of the Mundaring Parish churches please speak to our Rector, Rev Kim, or contact our Parish Office to make a time to meet with Rev Kim. Rev Kim will be able to discuss with you options for how you want to say goodbye to your loved ones.

We will work with your Funeral Director to make the arrangements and your Funeral Director will work with us in the conduct of the funeral service. We also may be able to organise for our priest to preside at a service at a Crematorium.

While there is no direct fee for the funeral, you may consider a donation to the Church if you would like to contribute.

Our brochures listed below contain information that may be useful and assist you and your loved ones:

-  organising a funeral service
-  funeral service request
-  interment of ashes in our memorial garden
-  interment of ashes request

things to think about when planning your own funeral

ANGLICAN PARISH OF MUNDARING

IT'S YOUR FUNERAL

This might sound morbid. After all none of us want to die before we have reached a ripe old age and achieved those thousand and one things on our bucket list. Giving some thought to the type of funeral we would like can give those left behind a helping hand as well as giving ourselves some peace of mind.

The suggestions in this brochure are not exhaustive nor are they meant to be followed slavishly. They are designed to help you think about what you would like and to let those close to you know your preferences.

Whilst it is your funeral please do try to be mindful of those close to you who will grieve your passing. This can often create a tension because you might want a short simple but dignified service whereas they might want a big elaborate send off—and vice-versa of course.

So it is good to put your thoughts on paper and then to share them with those closest to you.

Please use the following list as a discussion starter.

It is important to note this is not a legal document but simply an expression of your wishes to help those close to you.
