

Rev Kim is moving!

Many of you would have heard the news last Sunday that I am moving, but for those who weren't there I thought you might like to know some of the details.

I am moving to take up the post of Chaplain at Peter Carnley Anglican Community School in Wellard, which is further south of the diocese. As many of you know, I love working with children and young people and this is a very exciting opportunity to help young people explore faith.

My last Sunday at church will be the Epiphany service at 6pm on 5th January, I will be moving house on 6th January.

I have loved working with you here in the hills and my departure will be 'bitter-sweet' as I will miss you all very much, but I truly feel this is God's calling. Please pray for me as I prepare to move, and pray for Rev'd Oliver who will be staying on here at Mundaring as Locum until after Easter.

CHRISTMAS HAMPERS

Part of our Parish ethos is generous giving. Julie and I have been overwhelmed by the generous gifts for the hampers.

The Girl Guides and other Parishioners, as well as people outside of the Parish, have donated large amounts of food, Christmas goodies and toiletries. This enabled at least 10 families to have a large Christmas bag of goodies as well as vouchers, bags of essentials and a bag of toiletries. To some families this is the difference between having a 'special' occasion or an ordinary day.

We have also been able to support a family who are going through an extremely hard time. Your generosity has made a great difference by the way of food hampers, vouchers, toiletries and financial assistance. They are very grateful.

STILL, STILL, STILL

Still, still, still; to sleep is now His will.

On Mary's breast He rests in slumber

While we pray in endless number.

Still, still, still; to sleep is now His will.

Sleep, sleep, sleep, while we Thy vigil keep.

And angels come from Heaven singing

Songs of jubilation bringing sleep, sleep, sleep, while we Thy vigil keep.

Sleep, sleep, sleep, while we Thy vigil keep.
