

AS THE DEER PANTETH

As the deer panteth for the water,
so my soul longs after you.
You alone are my heart's desire
and I long to worship you.

*CHORUS: You alone are my strength and shield,
 to you alone may my spirit yield.
 You alone are my heart's desire
 and I long to worship you.*

I want you more than gold or silver,
only you can satisfy.
You alone are the real joy giver
and the apple of my eye.

CHORUS: You alone are my strength and shield.....

You're my friend and you are my brother,
even though you are a King.
I love you more than any other,
so much more than anything.

*CHORUS: You alone are my strength and shield,
 to you alone may my spirit yield.
 You alone are my heart's desire
 and I long to worship you.*

Wollaston Certificate in Theology. Term 1

Term 1 Offerings

Introduction to Youth Ministry

In this elective unit, taught by Mark Davis, participants will experience high quality, practical training that blends elements from missiology, practical theology and youth work. Over the four sessions the module will explore the difference between youth work and youth ministry, compare the incarnational and 'hit-and-run' models of delivery, how to start right and finish well and should youth ministry be fun?

When: Thursday evenings, 6pm–8pm, 13 February – 5 March

Where: Wollaston Theological College, Mount Claremont

Transforming Injustice

This elective unit, taught by the Reverend Chris Bedding, is designed to equip students to contribute to the church's work of transforming injustice. Students will be introduced to some of the Biblical foundations for the work of transforming injustice, and developing a life of nonviolence, based on the principles of nonviolence practised by Christians throughout history. Case studies and hypothetical situations will be explored, in order to give students the opportunity to apply their learning.

When: Tuesday evenings, 7pm–9pm, 3,10, 24 and 31 March

Where: St Cuthbert's Anglican Church, Darlington

Anglican Studies

In this elective unit, students explore the development of Anglican faith and life from Christian origins in Britain/England to the present world-wide Communion. Anglicanism in the Australian context will also be studied, with a special focus on an Anglican understanding of education.

When: Thursday evenings, 6–8 pm, 12 March – 2 April

Where: Wollaston Theological College, Mount Claremont
