

FRIDAY MORNING

Through Christ let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. (Hebrews 13:15)

Glory to God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit:
as in the beginning, so now, and for ever. Amen.

²The Opening Canticle, A Song of God's Grace

We have complete freedom:
to go into the most holy place by means of the death of Jesus
He opened for us a new way, a living way:
through the curtain, through his own body.
Since we have a great high priest
set over the household of God:
let us draw near with a sincere heart and a sure faith,
With hearts that have been made clean
from a guilty conscience:
and bodies washed with pure water. (Hebrews 10:19-22)

³The Opening Prayer

The night has passed and the day lies open before us;
let us pray with one heart and mind.

Silence may be kept

As we rejoice in the gift of this new day,
so may the light of your presence, O God,
set our hearts on fire with love for you;
now and for ever. Amen.

⁴The Psalms as appointed. A pause is observed after each.

⁵At the end of the (last) pause there may follow

Holy God, through your beloved Son you reconciled all things to yourself, making peace by the blood of his cross: fill us and those for whom we pray with your peace and joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

⁶One or two Readings from the Bible as appointed

The reading may be followed by a period of silence for reflection, a hymn or

May your word live in us
and bear much fruit to your glory.

7 The Canticle, Saviour of the World

Jesus, Saviour of the world,
come to us in your mercy:
we look to you to save and help us.
By your cross and your life laid down,
you set your people free:
we look to you to save and help us.
When they were read to perish,
you saved your disciples:
we looked to you to come to our help.
In the greatness of your mercy,
loose us from our chains:
forgive the sins of all your people.
Make yourself known as our saviour
and mighty deliverer:
save and help us that we may praise you.
come now and dwell with us, Lord Christ Jesus:
hear our prayers and be with us always.
And when you come in your glory:
make us to be one with you
and to share the life of your kingdom.

² The Opening Canticle, The Lord's Servant

He was despised; he was rejected:
a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief.
As one from whom people hide their faces:
he was despised, and we esteemed him not.
Ours were the sufferings he bore:
ours the torments he endured,
While we thought he was being punished:
struck by God and brought low.
He was pierced for our sins:
bruised for no fault but ours.
His punishment has won our peace:
and by his wounds we are healed.
We had all strayed like sheep:
all taking our own way;
But the Lord laid on him:
the guilt of us all.

3 The Opening Prayer

The day is now passed and the night is at hand.
Let us pray with one heart and mind.

Silence may be kept

Father of lights, receive the prayer and praise we offer you as our evening sacrifice;
make us a light for all the world, delivered by your goodness from all the works of darkness; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord. Amen.

7 The Canticle, A Song to the Lamb

You are worthy, our Lord and God:
to receive glory and honour and power.
For you have created all things:
and by your will they have their being.
You are worthy, O Lamb, for you were slain:
and by your blood you ransomed for God
saints from every tribe and language and nation.
You have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God:
and they will reign with you on earth.
To the One who sits on the throne and to the Lamb
be blessing and honour and glory and might, for ever and ever. Amen.

(Revelation 4:11; 5:9b-10)
